Treasurer, Melissa Holloway discussed with the Commission about opening a separate checking account for the Unclaimed Property Fund. Said fund is currently included in the Main Account. The purpose of opening a separate checking account is to make the process of holding, disbursing to owner and /or remitting to the Missouri State Treasurer's office at the completion of the three-year holding requirement more effective. The Commission stated that they had no objections with the Treasurer Holloway opening a new checking account for the Unclaimed Property Fund, but requested that she speak to the Missouri State Auditors office for their opinion. Treasurer Holloway spoke with Senior Auditor, Amanda Flanigan who discussed with Audit Manager, Julie Moulden. They had no objection. Treasurer Melissa Holloway also discussed with the Commission about designating a new GL Account Number for Extradition to be a part of the General Revenue Jail budget. As it is at the present time, Extradition is a special fund and wherever the Judge orders extradition, money must be transferred from General Revenue Jail Misc GL Account Number to the Extradition Fund. The check is then issued to the company that picks up the inmate. Once the Treasurer receives the reimbursement from the State, it is receipted to the Extradition fund and then transferred back to General Revenue Jail budget. The purpose of making the Extradition fund a part of the General Revenue Jail budget is to make the process more efficient. The Commission stated that they had no objections with Treasurer Holloway's request, but they requested that she speak to the Missouri State Auditors office for their opinion. Treasurer Holloway spoke with Senior Auditor, Amanda Flanigan who discussed with Audit Manager, Julie Moulden. They had no objection.
